The survey also said that employees remain positive in their expectations in the coming months as 52% employers plan to take on new recruits from July through March 2012, up from 39% from 2010.

The survey also said that the health care and banking and financial services sectors grew 19% in hiring as compared to the like period of the previous financial year.

Automobiles and manufacturing and telecom sectors hired 14% and 12% more people respectively.

"As we have conversations with employers and recruitment consultant, all indicate that the hiring activity will sustain and improve in coming months," said Rajesh Kumar, founder and chief executive officer, MyHiringClub.com.

"This year, India is seeing job creation in all industries, functions and company sizes. The survey shows that IT sector is leading and going to lead in the hiring activities," he added.
